

Joe Collard
Managing Director
Birrdiya

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Applied Science, (Indigenous Community Management & Development Practitioner)
- Diploma (Language & Linguistics)
- Certificate IV in Human Resources
- Certificate IV in Training and Assessment
- Certificate III in Human Services
- Certificate II in Security Operations

Joe is a proud, well connected and respected Biboolmirn Nyoongar living in the Perth metropolitan region who has significant experience in working within complex environments and challenging roles. Joe has a passion for language and is regarded as a language expert, providing both cultural and language education. Joe is also well regarded as a compassionate advocate for his community, providing a voice where needed.

Joe has 25 years of experience in providing Aboriginal led service delivery to Government and community-based organisations. He is a professional community development practitioner and has worked extensively in capacity building, training and project management. In addition to this Joe has considerable experience in developing, delivering and advocating for the inclusion of culturally appropriate services for clients, community and stakeholders.

Joes' key goal is to further motivate and enhance cultural competencies within the workplace, by providing culturally sustainable practices such as Cultural Awareness Training, Culturally Immersive Events and Language Programs as well as providing Consultancy and Advisory support and programs.

For more information on available services please contact Joe directly at - www.birrdiya.com

info@birrdiya.com

0415 980 556

